

Explanatory video on the topic: Recognition of a disability in Germany

In a new short video we explain how the recognition of a disability takes place in Germany. We provide information about the individual application steps and the right contact persons.

The certification of a so-called “degree of disability” is a prerequisite for receiving disability-specific participation and support services. This video is available in German, English, Ukrainian and Russian with English subtitles.

Deutsch

Українською

Русский